

List of US Census Bureau surveys: <https://www.census.gov/programs-surveys/surveys-programs.html>

List of All Surveys

You may have been asked to participate in a household or business survey. The U.S. Census Bureau conducts more than 100 surveys of households and business across the nation each year, including the American Community Survey.

This page links you to information about our surveys, frequently asked questions, and the people to contact if you need help.

Page 1 of 7 >

2020 Census START HERE.
Learn about the 2020 Census - how to respond, and why it matters. Shape your future. START HERE.

Advance Monthly Sales for Retail and Food Services (MARTS)
Provides an early indication of sales of retail and food service companies.

American Community Survey (ACS)
The American Community Survey is the premier source for information about America's changing population, housing and workforce.

American Housing Survey (AHS)
The AHS is sponsored by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau.

American Time Use Survey (ATUS)
The ATUS measures the amount of time people spend doing various activities, such as paid work, childcare, volunteering, and socializing.

Annual Business Survey (ABS)
Provides annual data on select economic and demographic characteristics of employer businesses, including annual R&D estimates.

Annual Capital Expenditures Survey (ACES)
Provides estimates on business spending for new and used structures and equipment.

Is this page helpful?